

CET	Sunday 13 June	Monday 14 June
10.30-11.45	Did Liberalism Exist Before 1800? Discussion Dan Klein, Richard Whatmore and Erik Matson	Organized Business and the Struggle for Economic Liberalism in the Cold War Era (link) Discussion introduction: Rikard Westerberg
13.15-14.30	The Edifying Discourse of Adam Smith: Focalism, Policy Influence, and the Great Enrichment (link) Discussion introduction: Erik Matson	Liberal forerunners and heritage in Sweden 1780-1840, some reflections Discussion introduction: Björn Hasselgren
15.00 – 16.15	The nineteenth century liberal breakthrough in Finland – historical context and influences Discussion introduction: Jens Grandell	Final discussion Discussions on the themes of the Summer Seminar Zoom-seminar – all participants
16.15 – 17.30	Adam Smith's Thought: Main Themes (link) Discussion introduction: Dan Klein	